Dear Adrian

The Osbaldeston Parish Council committee has not objection to the above application. They note particularly the specific circumstances of the family and their requirements. Also that RVBC were supportive of the previous application and we can see no material difference.

Councillors also made comments regarding the room size / low ceilinged nature of these types of properties in our area (two of our councillors live in these types of dwellings), and that some improvements are necessary to accomodate the needs of a modern family.

The proposed upgrade was felt to be both sympathetic and an imaginative design for the future.

Kind Regards

The Osbaldeston Committee
