PLANNING STATEMENT

SITE: 4 NO. HOLIDAY LET COTTAGES, HEY MOO, MELLOR BROW, MELLOR

PROPOSAL: REMOVAL OF CONDITION 17 FROM PLANNING PERMISSION 3/2004/0450 TO ALLOW USE AS PERMANENT RESIDENTIAL ACCOMMODATION

- 1 Elswick Farm is situated on the western side of Mellor Brow. The farm comprises the original farmhouse and garden, now in separate ownership, a barn converted to a dwelling approved under reference 3/2001/0127, three further buildings that have recently been granted consent under reference 3/2011/0163 and a traditional stone barn converted for use as self-catering holiday accommodation (planning reference 3/2004/0450) the subject of this application.
- 2 Access to the farm is obtained via a track which runs up the west side of 46 Mellor Brow, an end terrace property. The access track coincides with the settlement boundary, which includes the terrace and properties to the east of the farm, but excludes the farm itself and properties to the west and south. Accordingly the application site is located within the open countryside. Extending west along Mellor Brow there is considerable ribbon development, which impacts on the character of the area
- 3 There is significant and extensive planning history attached to the site as a whole, but the relevant items appertaining to the application building can be summarised as follows:

3/2003/0055 - Conversion of agricultural barn to restricted use business self-catering accommodation - Refused 15 May 2003

3/2003/0865 - Conversion of barn to form 4 no holiday let units - Refused 25 November 2003

3/2004/0450 - Change of use to form self catering holiday accommodation - Approved conditionally 9 September 2004.

Of relevance to this proposal is condition No.17 on consent 3/2004/0450 which reads as follows:

"The units of accommodation shall not be let to or occupied by any one person or group of persons for a period of longer than 3 months in any one year and in any event shall not be used as a permanent accommodation. A register of all lettings shall be kept and made available to the Local Planning Authority for inspection on an annual basis."

- 4 The key concern at this time is whether the retention of the condition is justified. The issue centres around the occupancy of the dwellings purely as holiday lets. Saved policy H23 states that proposals to remove a condition restricting occupancy in this way will be refused "... unless the proposal conforms to the normal development control policies ..."; saved policy H2 is relevant in this instance. Policy H2 limits residential development in the open countryside, but does allow the conversion of buildings for this purpose provided that a number of criteria are satisfied. The building is within a group of other dwellings, and a scheme of conversion for residential use has previously been approved. Furthermore since the imposition of the condition in 2004 there has been a significant change in circumstances, with the Council no longer being in a situation of oversupply of housing. Accordingly the retention of the condition limiting the occupancy to holiday let is unjustified.
- 5 This conclusion is supported by a number of planning consents recently granted for the removal of conditions restricting the occupancy of dwellings in the countryside to holiday lets. An example is Pear Tree Cottage on Mitton Road at Whalley where planning permission has been granted (planning reference 3/2010/0573/P) for the modification of a condition allowing a property formerly limited to use as a holiday let to be used as permanent residential accommodation. More recently, a similar application has been granted under reference 3/2011/0062 thereby allowing Arbour Cottage on Longridge Road at Thornley with Wheatley to be used as a permanent residential dwelling.
- 6 In conclusion, whilst it has been demonstrated that it is not appropriate or justified in planning terms to maintain the occupancy condition, then it is equally important to note that the removal of the condition allowing the dwellings occupation as a permanent residential unit does not preclude its ongoing use as holiday cottages, and at the present time it is in fact my client's intention to continue to promote the use of the units in this manner.
