Hello Graeme

Thank you for giving Sport England the opportunity to comment on the revised plans.

Sport England welcomes the inclusion of recessed goals which allows a slightly larger pitch area.

I can confirm the comments made in my correspondence of 3rd May 2012 remains unchanged and the condition requiring materials and construction details of the AGP prior to commencement is still required.

Kind Regards

Hello Fiona,

Please note we have revised plans for this one. They are on our website. I do not envisage they will change your initial response.

Thanks,
