Claire

Having now visited the site and subsequent to our discussion last week I have no objection to this proposal.

Hi Mark

Further to my telephone call I would like your opinions on this proposal as the house would be considerably larger and created additional bedrooms. I have attached the application for ease.

When I visited, the applicants car was parked at the side of the house so I pulled up next to her and then had to reverse on to the road as I couldn't turn around within the curtilage.

Claire
