Dear Claire,

I have no objection to the removal of conditions from planning consents previously granted (3/2002/0072 and 3/2006/1008) to allow the use of 3 cottages (in total) as permanent dwellings rather than holiday cottages. From a highways perspective this will result in residents who will regularly use the local road network, as opposed to short term visitors who will not be familiar with the local roads. Highway safety should be very marginally improved as a result.

Regards,
