10.4 No waiver (whether expressed or implied) by the Council (or the County Council or Owner) of any breach or default in performing or observing any of the covenants terms or conditions of this Deed shall constitute a continuing waiver and no such waiver shall prevent the Council (or the County Council or the Owner) from enforcing any of the relevant terms and conditions or from acting upon any subsequent breach or default

10.5 Wherever under this deed the consent or approval of the Council is required such consent or approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed

11. DISPUTES

11.1 Subject to clause 11.4 if any dispute arises relating to or arising out of the terms of this Deed, any party (which for the purposes of this clause 11 shall include the Council) may serve written notice upon the other parties requiring the dispute to be determined under this clause 11. The notice shall propose an appropriate Specialist and specify the nature and substance of the dispute and the relief sought in relation to the dispute.

(a) For the purposes of this clause 11.1 a Specialist is a person qualified to act as an expert in relation to the dispute having not less than 10 years professional experience in relation to developments in the nature of the Development and property in the same locality as the Site.

(b) Any dispute over the identity of the Specialist is to be referred at the request of either party to the President or other most senior available officer of the organisation generally recognised as being responsible for the relevant type of Specialist who will have the power with the right to take such further advice as he may require to determine and nominate the appropriate Specialist or to arrange this nomination. If no such organisation exists or the parties cannot agree the identity of the organisation, then the Specialist shall be nominated by the President or the next most senior officer available of the Law Society.

11.2 The Specialist is to act as an independent expert and:

- (a) each party may make written representations within 10 Working Days of his appointment and will copy the written representations to the other party;
- (b) each party is to have a further 10 Working Days to make written comments on the other's representations and will copy the written comments to the other party;
- (c) the Specialist is to be at liberty to call for such written evidence from the parties and seek such other legal or other expert advice as he or she may reasonably require
- (d) the Specialist is not to take oral representations from the parties without giving the other parties the opportunity to be present and give evidence and to cross examine each other
- (e) the Specialist is to have regard to all the representations and evidence before him when making his decision, which is to be in writing and must contain reasons for his decision; and
- (f) the Specialist is to use reasonable endeavours to publish his decision within 30 Working Days of his appointment

11.3 Responsibility for the costs of referring a dispute to a Specialist under this clause 11 including the costs connected with the appointment of the Specialist and the Specialist's own costs and the legal and profession fees of any party in relation to a dispute shall be determined by the Specialist

11.4 This clause 11 does not apply in relation to disputes in relation to matters of law or the construction or interpretation of this Deed which will be subject to the jurisdiction of the courts

12. INDEXATION INTEREST AND VAT

12.1 If any payment due under this Deed is paid late Interest shall be payable from the date the payment is due to the date of payment

12.2 All consideration given in accordance with the terms of this Deed shall be exclusive of any value added tax properly payable

13. CONTRIBUTIONS

The Contributions which shall be paid pursuant to this Deed are subject to an express trust that they be used for the purposes specified in this Deed and if they shall not have been expended or contractually committed to be spent then on expiry of a five year period (to be calculated from the date that the final instalment of the last of the Contributions to be paid to the Council and the Country Council) the Contributions or the balance of them (if any) together with all interest accrued upon the balance (if any) shall be promptly repaid to the Owner here meaning the said Denis Gerald Lambert

14. COMMUNITY INFRASTRUCTURE LEVY

- 14.1 If after the date of this Deed the Council approves a charging schedule pursuant to the Regulations and the same has taken effect and as a consequence thereof any planning obligations under this Deed change and/or require that the Owner must pay a sum of money to any person (whether HM Government or to the Council or otherwise) which would duplicate add to or overlap with any planning obligation of a party under this Deed then the terms of this Deed may at the election of the party affected be modified to such extent (if any) as is necessary to provide terms which are financially and practically no less advantageous and no more onerous than the terms of this Deed as at the date they are entered into
- 14.2 With regard to the Regulations as amended if it is expressly declared by the Secretary of State or an inspector appointed by him that any of the Contributions are unlawful or invalid or should not have been taken into account in the determination of the Application as a reason of the grant of planning permission then the clauses of this Deed relating to the Contributions shall be severed and rendered ineffective as far as possible in accordance with Clause 10.3 of this Deed without modifying the remaining provisions of this Deed and shall not in any way affect any other circumstances of or the validity or enforcement of this Deed
