

17.0 Photographs

Right; Trees located to the south are in a neighbouring garden but are encroaching onto the development, Their RPA's are within the proposed developed area and will require protection

Below; T8 Beech is located in a neighbouring garden and will require protection from the development

Bottom left; Again looking north to garden

Bottom right; T11 to also be protected from the development

Right; T10 is left of the two trees and heavily leaning over the road

Below; T10 Beech with Phytophthora infection

Bottom right; The other side of T10 Beech were fungi can be seen rotting the dead wood on the stem on the tension side of the tree

