Afternoon Victoria,

Having compared the submitted plans for the current application and the previous application ( 2013/0742) I note a number of changes which do not appear to be referred to in the application description namely

Increase in the number of bedrooms from 2 to 3
Loss of one of the parking spaces – provision down to 2 from 3
The loss of the turning head.

Whilst I would be minded to raise no objection I would need clarification on the above points and should the turning area be omitted I would need to be satisfied that vehicles would still be able to enter / leave in forward gear.
