Hi Robert

Planning Application No: 3/2018/0024

Grid Ref: 375701 434923

Proposal: Conversion and extension of redundant piggery and store to one single-storey dwelling including access and parking.

Location: Outbuildings adjacent to Hammond Drive Read BB12 7RU

With regard to the above planning application to convert outbuildings to a dwelling. This property offers sufficient parking and turning. The property is served from a private road and therefore does not raise any highway concerns so I will not be raising any objections on highway grounds.

Regards
Chris
