Morning Robert,

There are no plans showing the formation of the site access available to view on the website and as such I have nothing to refer to in respect of considering the discharge of condition 35. I am aware within the office that the S38 drawings ( which includes the site access) have been agreed in principle but the actual agreement has yet to be signed.

Once I am satisfied that the plans submitted through the application process are the same as those agreed for the S38 process I would be in a position to provide my formal comments
