Application for a proposed two storey side extension

Good morning Rebecca
Thank you for the amended plan.

The proposal will result in the construction of a two storey side extension.

The initial proposal was for the creation of a fourth bedroom as a result of the extension, although with an increased demand for parking along with a parking provision that could not be achieved, the plans have now been revised and the applicant now wishes to retain the dwelling to 3 bedrooms.

As a result of the revised plan the dwelling will retain 3 bedrooms and therefore the parking provision will remain the same as existing.

I would therefore raise no objection towards the proposal on highway grounds.
