You would submit an application for householder planning permission, (form attached)

We would require a site location plan with your property and curtilage outlined in red. These can be purchased online at a reasonable price if you don't already have access to one.

We would need existing and proposed floor plans showing the proposed changes and if any external changes are proposed existing and proposed elevations are required. All drawings should be at a recognised scale and have measurements annotated.

An existing and proposed site plan detailing parking with the size of each space meeting the minimum LCC parking standards.

The councils validation required are available online which have a more specific list of requirements.

No fee is required, as long as the development only relates to the garage conversion.
