Subject: planning application 3/2022/026

Ribble Valley Planning,

I am writing this email as a result of the above planning application by Shireburne caravan site for three new residential pitches. The Site licence which we as residents pay for and without the site would not be able to operate ,states that the maximum number allowed is 105, this application would bring the number to 106 as there are only 103 pitches occupied. This is serious breach of the Site licence . and this will be fought against by the residents, who by the way pay a total of over [REDACTED] in pitch fees and get nothing done for the money, There are a serious number of trees which need attention and are the owners responsibility and the [REDACTED]

Regards
