Hello Stephen

Regarding the turning area at the end of the houses,the area is too small,for safety reasons that area should be the original size.

Delivery vehicles need plenty of room to turn round Somebody will get hurt if delivery vans have to reverse [REDACTED]

The amount of people that now walk along [REDACTED] is asking for trouble unless safety is kept at the maximum possible,it's dangerous for us when vehicles pass down the backs just coming out of the [REDACTED] you have to be careful [REDACTED]
