

Design and Access statement

Application to amend approved drawings under permission 3/2021/0144

Minor alterations were added to the dwelling and the revised plans show these in their entirety to avoid future problems.

All neighbouring dwellings have rooflights and other changes which do not require prior approval under Permitted Development, it seems unfair to discriminate against a replacement dwelling which would not need this application.

