Comments: How can you build across a vehicle access when the land doesn't belong to 21 Bright Street exclusively?. It is an access for the backs of all the properties on Bright Street. We use the land to access the [REDACTED] to maintain [REDACTED] keep it tidy by picking up any litter and rubbish up. There are also vehicles parked on the vacant land most nights so they would have to be parked on the road which is very busy at mornings/evenings by school traffic and also dropping off/picking up from Mearley Fold Day Centre across from the access. The general proposed extension looks quite extensive against the original property and might reduce the light off the property adjacent to it. Yours sincerely [REDACTED]
