Good Aternoon ,planning for bungalows on Neville /Fleet Street.

I feel the site is too small for 4 bungalows .Why can Ravenscourt not be refurbished it was a lovely house when looked after.I am completely flabbergasted regarding the comment Neville street is a quiet cul da sac are they having a laugh it's horrendous getting in and out of the street ,a car sales are in the garage cars are parking on both sides of the road and paths so there is no parking for [REDACTED].so I don't know we're visitors for the new development. Will park There is no hammer head cars regularly turn round in private driveways .please note 2, 4 bed detached houses were built at the top of Neville street RVBC planning were against this development but were overruled by commitee. Thank you [REDACTED]
