Dear Mr Taylor,

I did try to speak to you today but you have not yet returned my call. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
I will deal with both applications together. The latest is described as a resubmission.

Please note

- 1) RVBC have not notified us of either application. We are [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] and the property likely [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] to and from site. Witnessed at first hand last week with the [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]. Is there any explanation for the lack of notification?
- 2) The first submission was granted subject to conditions. Removal of trees and demolition has taken place without compliance of those conditions. What enforcement action is to be taken ? Is there now a stop order in place to prevent further works ? The machine driver was on site when I [REDACTED]
- 3) The latest application is described as a replacement for an existing dwelling. There is no longer an existing dwelling. Does this mean the application is therefore void ?

Please note that we object to the application and wish to be placed on the notification list.

We look forward to hearing from you with your replies to the questions asked in this email.

Yours faithfully
