Comments: I object to the development of 29 Castle View (its conversion to a commercial business). Castle View is already a busy road. With the prospect of eight people staying at the house and the resultant vehicles requiring parking space, the road, and that particular junction, will become even busier for residents.

Comments: I OBJECT. There is increased traffic on an already congested street. Lack of parking is a problem.

Comments: I write to object strongly on [REDACTED] in a [REDACTED] [REDACTED] from the above. Having already been aware of all the coming and going extra parking and noise I can only see it becoming more prevalent and impacting on the remaining residents. All of the right side of Castle View are sheltered bungalows and we already have trouble parking on our road (drivers parking and going on the train often for the weekend. Therefore I ask the Planning Officer to consider all the other residents of a once quiet street thank you. [REDACTED]

Comments: [REDACTED] I was shocked to hear of this application.

I strongly object to the change of use of a family home in this residential street into holiday accommodation.

The street should remain a residential street for families.

Parking has always been an issue [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]. My family, carers and friends have difficulty parking to pick me up to take me out. [REDACTED], my family put their [REDACTED] on but then I feel anxious and under pressure to [REDACTED] because I am holding up other drivers. I feel at risk of [REDACTED] it makes me think twice about going out.

Comments: I strongly object to the conversion of a family home into a commercial business. 8 adult guests make much more noise than a family would and I have first hand experience of noisy neighbours.

I fully empathise with the family living next door to this holiday accommodation. The noise is unpredictable and there is no way of compromising with people who have paid to stay somewhere. There is an increase in antisocial behaviour with unvetted guests and visitors to the property.
