

Supporting Information – Location of proposed Air Source Heat Pump

The proposed heat pump is to be sited as per the existing unit, which is broken / cannot be repaired. The pump is located on land owned by others. The applicant has an existing agreement in place with the land owner.

The existing unit will be disposed on and the new unit installed in the same location. There will be no other changes.