Good morning,
Please accept this as our objection to the application. These people are living there already and you've not enforced anything. The ugly incongruent shipping container is still there and your department or enforcement have done nothing. It's almost like there's a conspiracy to let these people do whatever they want.
Kind regards

Hi,
As an addendum. It's interesting how [REDACTED] the applicant has put his address down [REDACTED]. It's isn't. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

He's been living on the site for over 2 years now and you know as I've provided more than enough evidence. And o know other neighbours have too. Can you for once protect us instead of enabling total lack of respect for us and others by refusing this variation and enforcing the already in place planning permission.

Regards

Good afternoon,

I hope you are well. Re the above's planning permission.

The planning approval makes it very very clear that the sorry as to remain as one to ensure it stays intact as a business and so that safety issues and for compliance to said planning approval.

FYI [REDACTED], i.e., 2 lodges. He's agreed to sell the 4th lodge [REDACTED].

This means there is now 2 sites, and possibly 3 sites given there is 2 owners and possibly 3 once the 4th lodge is finished.

This is easily checked on the land Registry.

Can you confirm I'm correct and you'll enforce this please. This is slowly but surely becoming a full on residential site and are openly admitting it.

This goes against the grain of all your own policies set out publicly. We're not the only ones to have spotted these issues, please see the parish Council's Response in conjunction with this complaint.

Kind regards

Good afternoon,

It's come to my attention that the 4 holiday lodges are now not in single ownership. At least 2 have been sold [REDACTED]. This breaks the planning permission covenants that Ribble Valley Council planning department set out.

I'd also like you to enforce the removal of the shipping container. And I'd like you enforce the fact they've lived in these lodges consecutively for two years now.

Kind regards
