Dear Kathryn,

The Out Barn has always been a champion of local businesses [REDACTED], choosing to source from independent shops rather than large suppliers.

Over the years, [REDACTED] for their events, and their regular orders have been a significant contribution [REDACTED].

It's businesses like The Out Barn that help sustain independent shops in Clitheroe. Their commitment to working with local suppliers has a ripple effect on the community, supporting not only businesses [REDACTED] but also other local shops and producers.

The proposed changes in their planning application 3/2024/0758 will allow them to continue offering high-quality events that benefit the local economy. I fully support their application Kind Regards, [REDACTED]
