To whom this may concern,

Regarding the above planning reference.

While we appreciate the desire for new residential opportunities in the area, we would like to express our concerns regarding the proposed single storey dwelling [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] or directly visible from the new proposed single storey dwelling. This potential impact would be enhanced by the proposed dwellings design, proposing to place a glass façade to the west elevation [REDACTED].

Given the nature of the proposed dwelling, to house older and retired individuals who are likely to be present [REDACTED], we would like to put forwards our concern that [REDACTED] for future residents or, unintentionally, to [REDACTED] and are in place prior to this potential new residential planning application without any impacts or historical issues to date.

We kindly ask that this is taken into serious consideration as part of this residential planning review process, to ensure the long-term harmony between residential and [REDACTED].

Kind regards
