Your local planning authority will be able to advise on the content of any assessments that may be required.

Biodiversity net gain

Biodiversity net gain is a legal requirement for planning permission introduced on 12 February 2024. All applications are required to either provide detailed information proving there will be a biodiversity increase; or explain why the requirement does not apply to the development.

Find out more about biodiversity net gain, and access digital tools from our partners that can help determine if you are exempt, or produce the biodiversity metric information required.

Do you believe that, if the development is granted permission, the general Biodiversity Gain Condition (as set out in Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 \(as amended\)) would apply?

- Yes
 No

Biodiversity net gain has been introduced as a general condition for planning permission. As set out in The Environment Act 2021: "grants of planning permission in England [are] to be subject to a condition to secure that the biodiversity gain objective is met". Therefore, in England, all planning permissions are generally subject to biodiversity gain rules, unless they are specifically exempt or out of scope.

If you have stated that the biodiversity net gain requirement does not apply to your application you must provide the reason(s) why, and may also need to supply evidence (especially where you believe the application is eligible for the 'de minimis' exemption).

You can use our partner's free online tool to determine if you are exempt and to produce detailed reasons

Please add all the reasons why biodiversity net gain does not apply and enter a justification for each one

Reason biodiversity net gain does not apply:

Development subject to the de minimis exemption (development below the threshold)

What best describes the size of your site?:

Under 25 square metres

Please justify the reason why biodiversity net gain does not apply:

Note: Please read the help text for further information why developments may be exempt or not in scope.

Details of the pre-application advice received

- The principle of development is secured as the proposal would involve a domestic extension to an existing residence. This is subject to appropriate use of materials and other design considerations.
- The proposed two-storey side extension will result in a relatively substantial footprint increase when viewed in context with the original dwelling. The existing two-storey extension measures approximately 3.32 meters in width, with the proposed addition measuring approximately 2.5 meters externally. The proposed extension overall will measure less than the width of the main dwelling but only marginally, being less than a meter difference. It has been suggested that this is reviewed to obtain a more substantial difference in width where possible between the two-storey extension and main dwelling.
- The proposed window arrangement, being largely consistent with the existing extension is deemed acceptable. The reduced amount of glazing in comparison to the previous submission is definitely an improvement. Stone mullions and single panes in a dual arrangement would likely be required for sufficient integration into the main dwelling.
- Any approval of the two-storey extension would be subject to specific details/samples of materials and window detailing being submitted. This could be dealt with during the course of an application or obtained via condition. It is considered that there is an opportunity to improve the visual amenity of the building by incorporating appropriate materials into the new extension and removing the rough cast/pebble dash render that currently exists.
- In this sense the proposal would be required to ensure it does not appear dominant or overbearing with regard to nearby adjacent uses, does not afford for any opportunity for overlooking resulting in a loss of privacy, provides sufficient privacy distances and does not result in a significant overshadowing impact. Given the property is the end of a terraced, based on the details submitted, it is not expected that there would be any adverse impact on residential amenity.
- The site does sit within both groundwater and surface water flood risk zone and Flood Zone 2 and 3 and as such a flood risk assessment will need to be submitted with any application. However, as the application is 'minor development' as defined by the NPPF Para 168 a sequential test will not be required.
- Taking account of the above matters, the provision of a two-storey extension may be considered acceptable, subject to further consideration of matters of detail/design and drainage. Precise details of which would need to be submitted with any full application.

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member
- (c) related to a member of staff
- (d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

- Yes
- No
