Please state why a Lawful Development Certificate should be granted

It is considered that the submitted evidence constitutes clear, precise, and unambiguous evidence to support this CLEUD application. It is considered that from the evidence submitted, on the balance of probability, land has been used for residential purposes in excess of 10 years. It should be noted that there is no legal requirement to apply for a certificate of lawfulness to establish the extension after the 10 year time limit passes, it crystallises by fact in law after 10 years.

It should also be noted that where CLEUD applications are concerned, the purpose behind consulting third parties is solely to see whether they may have information which might support the application; unlike planning permission, views expressed on the planning merits of the case are irrelevant.

Case law has established that the applicant's own evidence does not need to be corroborated by "independent" evidence to be accepted. If the LPA has no evidence itself, nor from others, to contradict or otherwise make the applicant's version of events less than probable, there is no good reason to refuse the application, provided the applicant's evidence alone is sufficiently precise and unambiguous to justify the grant of a CLEUD on the balance of probability. Planning Practice Guidance as issued by DCLG reiterates that this is the approach to be taken by Local Planning Authorities when determining CLEUD applications.

A Local Planning Authority needs to consider whether, on the facts of the case and relevant planning law, the specific matter is or would be lawful.

It is considered that the information provided in this statement together with the accompanying application documents contribute sufficient evidence to enable the Council to make a complete and accurate assessment against current planning legislation.

It is considered that the Council can be satisfied that "on the balance of probability," the use is lawful and as such, that the Certificate can be issued accordingly.

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
