

Statement of Truth

[REDACTED] [REDACTED] hereby state as follows:

1. [REDACTED] and baring periods of college study have spent my entire life in the area of Longridge. From my earliest remembrances, I have been familiar with Alston Lane and many of its residents, including the successive owners of New Barn Farm, who have occupied that property since my early childhood.
2. [REDACTED]
3. [REDACTED] I have been resident on the lane ever since, a total period [REDACTED]
4. I have read the Statements of Truth and have had shown to me the photographs that accompany them, tendered by and on behalf of the applicants, and in all material respects believe there contents to be true and accurate. I also confirm to the best of my knowledge and belief that the photographs referred to are a true and accurate representation. I also confirm my understanding that the application relates to the land hatched red on the plans annexed to the statement and the buildings erected thereon.
5. As stated, I have known each of the successive occupiers and owners of New Barn Farm and been familiar with the use to which the house and buildings have been put throughout my life. This includes the [REDACTED] and accordingly the total period of my acquaintance with the property and the owners is approximately 70 years. Though for obvious reasons I cannot vouch for the earliest period of that acquaintance, I believe that the usage of the particular area of land and the buildings which are the subject of this application and which are described on the statements provided has been the same or very similar throughout the period.
6. I make this statement in support of an application for a Certificate of Existing Lawful Use to establish the lawful use of a building as domestic curtilage at New Barn Farm, Alston Lane, Longridge PR3 3BN, of my own volition, conscientiously believing the same to be true.
