REFUSAL OF CERTIFICATE OF LAWFULNESS FOR A PROPOSED USE OR DEVELOPMENT

APPLICATION NO: 3/2026/0454

DECISION DATE: 08 September 2026

DATE RECEIVED: 15/06/2026

APPLICANT:

Mr D Bone

PROPOSED USE OR DEVELOPMENT: Certificate of Lawfulness for proposed sunbed/beauty salon.

AT: Building adjacent to 17 Waddington Road (formerly Old Coach House Antiques and Interiors) Clitheroe BB7 2HJ

Ribble Valley Borough Council hereby give notice that the application for a certificate of lawfulness for the proposed use or development in respect of the above land has been refused. The reason(s) for this decision are as follows:

1. The application site does not benefit from the general permitted change of use within the same use class or from one use class to another by virtue of the conditions imposed on planning permission 3/1979/1515 which sought to restrict the use of the site to retail unless express planning permission is sought for an alternative use.
2. Even in the absence of any restrictive planning conditions, the application site does not fall within a commercial, business or service locality as per the requirements of Class E of The Town and Country Planning (Use Classes) Order 1987, and therefore the proposal would amount to a Sui Generis use requiring planning permission.

Notes

1. This Decision Notice should be read in conjunction with the officer's report which is available to view on the website.

Right of Appeal

If you are aggrieved by the decision of your local planning authority to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.

If you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision, then you must do so within 6 months of the date of this notice unless the following apply:

- If this is a decision to refuse planning permission for a householder application or a minor commercial application, if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice.
- If this is a decision on a planning application relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as is already the subject of an enforcement notice [reference], if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on your application, then you must do so within 28 days of the date of this notice.
- If an enforcement notice is served relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as in your application and if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on your application, then you must do so within: 28 days of the date of service of the enforcement notice, or within 6 months [12 weeks in the case of a householder appeal] of the date of this notice, whichever period expires earlier.

Appeals should be made online via <https://appeal-planning-decision.service.gov.uk/before-you-start>. If someone does not have access to the internet and needs help completing the appeal digitally, they should contact the Planning Inspectorate customer service team on 0303 444 5000 who will provide details of support options available.

Before making an appeal, you may find it helpful to review guidance and watch a video explaining the appeals process at <https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/make-an-appeal-to-the-planning-inspectorate-and-associated-guidance>.

The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal but will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal.

The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to the Secretary of State that the local planning authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions they imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order.
