SD 63 NE AIGHTON, BAILEY & CHAIGLEY

8/38 Bailey Hall

13.2.67 (formerly listed under Hurst Green)

II

House, C17th. Slobbered rubble with slate roof. T-plan, the south wing probably being C18th. 2 storeys with attic. C17th wing has weathered plinth and double-chamfered mullioned windows. The north front has continuous drip courses to both floors. To the left of the door is a window of one light, to the right one of 3 lights (with 2 lights blocked), with a blocked 2-light window further right at a lower level, originally to the stair. On the 1st floor are 2 cross windows, the right-hand one blocked. Further right, at a lower level and lighting the stair, is a similar window with 2 lights blocked. Above it is a blocked 2-light mullioned window with hood. The door has a chamfered surround with 4-centred head. The west gable has 2 2-light mullioned windows (the left-hand one blocked) with continuous drip course on the ground floor. On the 1st floor are 2 cross windows (the left-hand one blocked) with drip course. Above is a 2-light mullioned attic window with hood. The east gable has a blocked transomed 1st floor window and an attic window with plain reveals. The rear (south) wall of the main house has a 2-light mullioned window with hood on the ground floor and a 6-light mullioned and transomed window on the 1st floor with hood and 2 blocked lights. The west wall of the rear wing has squared blocks to its lower part with rubble above. The doorway has plain reveals, with a reconstructed chamfered window surround with mullion. The south gable is watershot, as is the east wall, which has a former 5-light double-chamfered mullioned window with one mullion missing. Interior. The rear wing has a shouldered C18th fireplace with moulded mantel and segmental head. The main block has a large internal chimney stack in its east room, now with no fireplace. The moulded handrail and a newel are the only visible surviving parts of a broad C17th stair.
