Your Comments: For the 3rd time I object strongly to the proposed waste of a greenfield site for a snail farm and log cabins. These are not needed, there is ample accommodation nearby. Access to the site will be dangerous on a busy road. If the proposed sewage system fails there will be appalling consequences for the whole village and for wild life. This area has badgers, newts, bats, deer, rabbits, hare and numerous avian and aquatic species, all of which will be harmful, as will the whole RURAL nature of the area with its attractive flowers and trees.. Houses around will be disturbed and lose market value.

The Ribble Valley is becoming a suburb rather than an area of countryside. Traffic and noise pollution are increasing with the constant thoughtless granting of planning applications which overload the infrastructure and services.

Enough is enough. Does every quiet piece of countryside have to be built on?

For the 3rd time I object most strongly to this greedy, damaging application.
