Your Comments: [REDACTED] I thought it would be worth commenting on the renovation project that is currently underway at number 14.

This property is clearly visible from ours and it's an understatement to say that the house required modernising. It's nice to see investment in the area and I can safely assume that renovation projects such as these will no doubt help increase properties values on the street.

In addition, the team have always been courteous and have respected the neighbours by ensuring we are notified prior to any noise or disruptions.
