Farm Building at Fair Oak Farm,
400 metres north-west of
Fair Oak farmhouse
(formerly listed as Fair Oak House)

GV

II
