We are looking for an experienced lifeguard to perform lifeguard duties for the main and teaching pools ensuring that a high standard of service is provided for customers who use the facilities. In addition, you will be required to undertake attendant duties including patrol and cleaning of the changing rooms.

Mon - 7:00am to 3:00pm (7.5 hours with a 30-minute meal break)
 Tues - 7:00am to 3:00pm (7.5 hours with a 30-minute meal break)
 Weds - 7:00am to 3:00pm (7.5 hours with a 30-minute meal break)
 Thurs - 7:00am to 3:00pm (7.5 hours with a 30-minute meal break)
 Friday- 7:00am to 2:30pm (7 hours with a 30-minute meal break)

Applicants must be competent swimmers, preferably with experience in a swimming pool. Applicants should have a current National Pool Lifeguard Qualification and working knowledge of Health & Safety legislation. Experience of working with the public is essential. If you would like an informal discussion about this role, contact Cultural & Leisure Services Manager, Colin Winterbottom on 01200 414588.

The successful candidate will be required to undertake a practical assessment and DBS check before appointment is confirmed.

Join us to receive a host of benefits such as favourable working hours, generous leave entitlement, occupational pension scheme and training/development opportunities.

This post has previously been advertised as “female lifeguard” to maintain the balance of male and female lifeguards but due to recruitment difficulties, we are now accepting applications from both male and female candidates.

Closing date: Monday 13th January 2025

Interview date: Friday 24th January 2025
